

Lund Co. Offices Moved To Del Amo Center Area

Offices of the Lund Co., one of the city's leading insurance agencies, have been moved to suite 201 at 22330 Hawthorne Ave. The move was made yesterday, according to Bill Brady and Norman Pierce.

The new offices are located on the southeast corner of Hawthorne Avenue and Sepulveda in the new Del Amo Financial-Professional Center Building.

The move to larger and more modern quarters was occasioned by a significant increase in business, Brady said. The firm was established in Torrance by Russell Lund in 1947.

Located south of the Del Amo Center and adjacent to the Guarantee Bank, the new quarters will permit Lund Co. to continue its high standard of service to professional, industrial, and personal clients. An added emphasis will be placed on the servicing of building contractors, according to Brady.

LATEST FASHIONS . . . Patti Campisi, an El Camino College student, and Bruce Brown, a student at Palos Verdes High School and salesman at Brown Brothers, model some of the latest in school fashions. Mr. Elliotts and Brown Brothers will stage a fashion show every Monday from 7 to 7:30 p.m. Both stores are located in the Rolling Hills Plaza.

Mr. Elliot's, Brown Brothers Plan Weekly Fashion Show

The very latest in fashions for the young man and young women will be modeled each Monday evening from 7 to 7:30 at Rolling Hills Plaza, according to Elliot Mahn, owner of Mr. Elliot's.

Mr. Elliot's and Brown Brothers will combine to present the weekly shows in the mall of the plaza. Agnes Mahoney, manager of Mr. Elliot's, will give the commentary for the fashion shows.

Brown Brothers has been located in the area since 1906, and recently moved to the Rolling Hills Plaza location. The store features a special collection in the "461 Shop" for young adults.

"Our aim," said Mahn, "is to give our customers the latest in stylings and highest in quality at moderate prices."

Art Show Now Open At South

Artists represented in the show include Mildred Smith, Robert Neatherly, Gene Sharp, Rose Hinkel, Agusta Berg, Marian Cummings, Nadine Becking, Dorothy Harvey, Beth Leffler, Sally Limer, Peggy Stewart, Lanny Pringle, and Bess Dubose.

Others represented include Carolyn Ditton, Lorayne Yates, Catherine Whitson, Virginia Huff, Norman Kirk, Betty Wilson, Bobbi Paul, Bert Sarr, Sister Mary Claire Terese, Ellen Roberts, Robert Jarvis, Mary Dick, and Rose Clark.

Palette Art Club Plans Friday Meet

The Palette Art Club will meet Friday at 8 p.m. in the clubroom at Wilhall, 325 Neptune Ave., in Wilmington. President Leland Hall of Lomita will conduct the meeting.

Guest speaker will be Jack Forney of Lomita who will speak on the art of mural painting. Forney, artist for 30 years, is a graduate of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts and earned his masters degree at Carnegie Tech in Pittsburgh, Pa. While working on murals for several business buildings in the area, he is completing "The Seven Days of Creation" which will be exhibited throughout the United States.

All artists of the Southwest area are invited to attend the meeting and to bring some work for the criticism period.

COMPARE NOTES . . . Mrs. Geneva Meara, president of the Women's Division of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors, compares notes with Hilbert E. Hopp, an expert on financing, who spoke recently to the members of the board. Hopp is a lecturer at the University of Southern California.

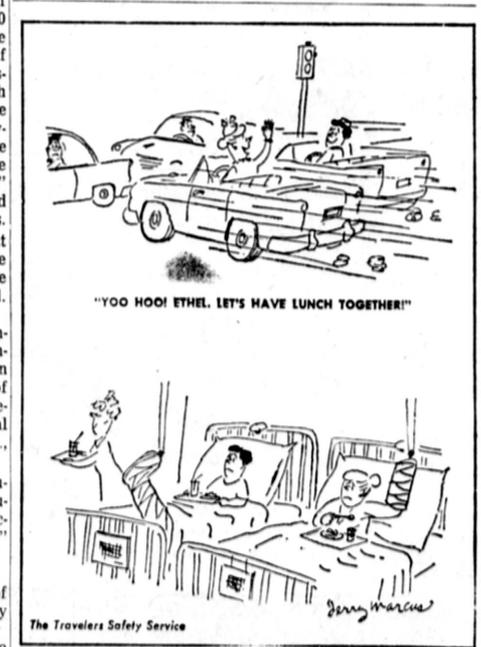

Knowledge of Financing Necessary, Board Told

Success in real estate is becoming more and more dependent on a thorough understanding of the science of financing, according to Hilbert E. Hopp, a vice president of a financial institution and university lecturer.

Hopp recently addressed some 200 members of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors at a luncheon meeting.

Money now available in banks and savings and loan institutions on the West Coast is not sufficient to meet the needs of the area, Hopp said. This situation, coupled with the fact that the East Coast continues to be the financial capital of the nation, means that realtors must continue to re-educate themselves on the mechanics of financing.

Hopp is a lecturer on mortgage banking at the University of Southern California. He also is a vice president of the Hacienda Mortgage Co. of Anaheim.
